

A HANDSOME CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED.

Ceremonies to Be Held in the Bushwick Avenue Congregational Church.

The New Edifice Made Possible by the Gift of Mr. Adrian
M. Suydam.

IT WILL START FREE FROM DEBT.

The Auditorium, When the Sunday-School Room Is Thrown Open, Will Seat 1,000 Persons—The Pastor Is the Rev. Charles W. King.

One of the prettiest churches in Brooklyn will be dedicated this morning, the Bushwick Avenue Congregational church in Bushwick Avenue, corner of Cornelli street. The pastor is the Rev. Charles W. King.

The decorators last week were busy putting the finishing touches on the handsome edifice.

The cornerstone of the new church was laid in the early part of last summer.
The late Adrian M. Suydam had given to the church a large plot fronting on Bushwick Avenue, and adjoining the plot upon which the old chapel stood.
He also made a bequest of $10,000 to the church for the purpose of erecting the new edifice. The church was built on the original bequest, and $5,000 more was easily raised by subscription. The total cost of the church was $15,000.
The terms of Mr. Suydam's will, which provided that every cent of the $15,000 be used for the church, were carried out by the church trustees, before work was begun, were complied with.

The old church was torn down, and the erection of the new church begun. A misunderstanding over a regulation of the Building Department caused some delay, but when this matter was adjusted the work went forward rapidly.

The building has a frontage of seventy-five feet and a depth of 100. It is of brick, with trimmings of terra cotta. The Romanesque style of architecture has been followed in its construction.

The auditorium is large, and the Sunday-school room is a large hall, with rooms for the seating of 1,000 persons.
The pulpit platform faces Cornelli street.

The services of dedication, which began this morning, will continue during the week. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Clark, secretary of the Congregational Home Missionary Society. At the Sunday-school rally the Rev. A. E. Newton will deliver an address, and tonight the Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Mc-Leod will preach.

Plays at the Brooklyn Theatres.

A comic opera which was one of the most prominent successes of last season in New York was "Rob Roy," which is to be sung in the Amphion Theatre the ensuing week by the Whitney Opera Company. During the lengthy run which it was favored with in the metropolitan city it drew a succession of wonderfully large audiences. One reason for its triumph may be found in the fact that it was the first really ambitious attempt to turn a stirring story of Scotch history into the capabilities of comic opera.
Scenery of striking beauty and costumes of superb design and barbarically gorgeous costuming of singers possessing an almost perfect vocal equipment, commanded attention for the opera. Very few changes have been made in it since the first time it was heard in New York, and none of them are of sufficient importance to disturb the harmony of the performance. Much of the music has an easy swing and some of the arias are positive gems of melody. "Rob Roy" has an almost dramatic story, for it tells of the feuds which existed between the lowlanders and the men of the hills in the days of vassalage. The plot of the opera is a story of the life of the hero, who is Charles D. Pratt, who lives on Clinton avenue. Miss Sherman is a most charming girl, sister to Mrs. Charles Adams, one of the most successful matrons and a bright member of the Civitas Club. As the founder of Pratt's Institute, Mr. Pratt's father's name is well known in the city. One of the features of the ball was the introduction of the "Milton Two-Step," named after the club.

A most interesting feature of the evening was the announcement of the engagement of Dr. William H. Siene, a nephew of Dr. J. A. Siene, to Miss Mary, daughter of Mr. George E. Crane, of No. 98 Pulaski street, last week. Mr. Crane has for many years been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Bushwick Avenue Baptist Church, and his many friends took advantage of the anniversary to surprise him. They arrived at the house at 8 o'clock. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. F. Griffith Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Wheeler, Miss S.
Liviana Axworthy, Mrs. N. B. Cook and Miss George E. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Row,
Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Leighton and Mrs.
and Mrs. George N. Conings.

Much interest attaches to the engagement of Miss Helen Siene, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Siene, who was married to Mr. George E. Crane, of No. 98 Pulaski street, last week. Mr. Crane has for many ## Social Happenings in Brooklyn.

The return of normal Spring weather did much to restore gaiety in Brooklyn during the past week. A number of weddings interspersed with dances, teas and informal smokers and entertainments at the clubs helped to divert the minds of belles and beaux from thoughts of seashore and mountain.

Fashion and beauty were conspicuous at the wedding of Miss Ada Louise Gibb to William Van Anden Hester, which took place on Tuesday afternoon in the Church, Clinton and Montague streets. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. S.
McConnell, rector of the church; the Rev. Ralph L. Bridges of St. Mark's Church, 14th St. and the Rev. J. T.
Russell. The church was handsomely decorated in green and white. The altar was massed with Easter lilies and the chancel was banked with palms. The ceremony was followed by a dinner at the home of the bride's parents, at No. 218 Gates avenue. Only the bridal party and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride wore a gown of white silk and the groom a suit of dark cloth.
The reception was held in the parlors of the house presented by Colonel Hester.

Brooklyn's old-time German friends were well represented at the marriage of Miss Minnie Graf, daughter of the late Mrs.
William Graf, to Frank Herman Vogt last Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lock, at the German Evangelical Church, Schermerhorn and Court streets. A reception was held in Arion Hall, in Wall street, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Vogt left town for a tour of several weeks through the Southern States.

The wedding of Miss Carrie Amelia Tutts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Tutts, to Mr. Robert Jones last Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, 10 St. Nicholas avenue, was a pretty home affair. The Rev. W. C. P. Rhodes, of the Marcy Avenue Baptist Church, officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white silk and the groom a suit of dark cloth. The reception was held in the parlors of the house presented by Mr. and Mrs. C.
Lehr. The bride's bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Tutts, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.
The bridesmaids were Miss Ella Cook,
Miss George E. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Row,
Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Leighton and Mrs.
and Mrs. George N. Conings.
